Subject Appearing by Phone at Commission Meeting

Dear Ms. Werth:

I am counsel for Yamaha Motor Corporation and our advisory opinion request (2012-37) will be considered at the December 6 meeting of the Commission. I received the draft advisory opinions yesterday by email and understand I have an automatic right to appear because I received them less than a week before the meeting.

I am unable to be physically present at the Commission meeting, but would like to participate by telephone. Please let me know if I need to take any additional steps to arrange such an appearance.

Thank you for your assistance,

Bryan Tyson
Counsel for Yamaha Motor Corporation
